Jill: Hello. This is Jill Harris. Can I speak to Ana, please?
Mrs. K.: Just a moment, dear. Ana, it's for you!
Ana: Hi, Jill. What is the zoo like?
Jill: It is super! So sorry you are ill.
Ana: Yes, I am ill. What can you do there? What can you see?
Jill: There is a funny monkey. The monkey always wants to open its cage.
Ana: Why?
Jill: Because John always goes near the cage and shows a banana to the monkey.
Ana: But it's dangerous to go too near the cages.
Jill: Yes, I know that. It's dangerous to go too near the cages. It's dangerous to feed the animals. It's dangerous to tease the animals. It's dangerous to shout... But John always wants to show off!

Brighton 17th July

Dear Mum, Dad and Maggie,
Here we are at the seaside.
It's fantastic!
Our camp is O.K. and it's very near the beach. The weather is lovely. It's sunny and very hot.
We are having a fancy dress party tonight. Chris is a pirate and I am an Indian girl. We are having a great time.
Tomorrow we are going to a beach, far from our camp. It is a long walk but it's the best sandy beach here. We hope to have a lot of fun.

Love and kisses
from Jill and Chris
