You're going to write an article about how fashions have changed.

You need to choose a decade from the past and compare it to today's fashions. Talk to people who lived in that decade and can remember what the fashions were (relatives, family friends, etc.). You could also use the Internet and books from a library. Maybe your teacher will be able to give you some information. Use the plan to help you.

Introduction

How important is fashion to you? Do fashions change quickly? Who decides on the latest fashions? Which decade have you chosen?

Body Paragraph 1
